THE WILLIAM T. AND SYLVIA F. ALDERSON ENDOWMENT FELLOWS

Professional members and friends of SEMC are encouraged to make commitments of distinction as Alderson Fellows. An investment of at least $1,000 is a significant leadership gift, reflective of a personal commitment to the professional association that has meant so much to each of us. Funds from the SEMC Endowment benefit professional development activities of the association and ensure future growth of the profession.

THE SEMC LEGACY SOCIETY

To recognize the generosity of individuals who have included the Southeastern Museums Conference in their wills or estate plans, SEMC has created the Legacy Society. Your planned gift will make a difference in the services of SEMC and the future development of our profession.

Through thoughtful planning and preparation, friends and fellow museum professionals can preserve the legacy bestowed on SEMC and ensure that SEMC continues to enrich lives for generations to come. In some cases, planned gifts can also provide tax advantages for donors and their heirs.

Regardless of the size, a planned gift will ensure that SEMC continues to provide the support services to our profession for years to come, a true legacy of generosity for the future!

Planned gifts may be designated for a specific purpose or unrestricted for the general use of SEMC.

Remember, you should discuss your planned gift with your accountant or attorney. These professionals can advise you about the tax advantages of a planned gift in your particular situation.

Many thanks to our endowment contributors for investing in the future of SEMC. When you are thinking of honoring or remembering someone, please consider a contribution to the SEMC endowment or inquire about the SEMC Legacy Society which recognizes gifts made through wills and estates.
