

PETER S. LAPAGLIA JIMI SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Peter S. LaPaglia had a long, successful career in the museum field, beginning as a museum professional and ending as a museum consultant. He was instrumental in creating Jumpstart! with Pam Meister, and that program grew into the nationally recognized Jekyll Island Management Institute (JIMI). The Southeastern Museums Conference (SEM C) and JIMI are pleased to award the annual Peter S. LaPaglia Scholarship for JIMI 2018, to be held January 16-23, 2018. The scholarship is for tuition only.

The recipient will be responsible for all travel and lodging costs. In addition, the recipient will be required to write an article on his/her JIMI experience to be included in the SEMC newsletter following JIMI.

SEM C and JIMI cordially invite you to submit your application for this scholarship.

Instructions: Include a copy of this scholarship application with the JIMI 2018 application packet. The deadline for submitting these materials is October 15, 2017.

Criteria: This scholarship is open to all museum personnel having 5-10 years of museum experience and demonstrating involvement with a museum professional organization (state, regional, or national). The applicant must be a member of SEMC or, if not working in the southeast, be a member of another regional museum association.

Notification: All applications will be reviewed by the JIMI Committee, and all applicants will receive notification of the committee's decisions by early November 2017.

Name _____ Title/Position _____

Museum/Historic House _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Telephone _____ Fax _____ Email _____

Number of Years of Experience in the Museum Profession _____

SEM C Membership Number (or other regional association membership number): _____

Narrative: Explain the importance of this scholarship to you and your institution. If additional space is needed, a second sheet may be used. Limit - 2 pages, including this form.

Applicant Signature: _____ Date: _____